Multidisciplinary Professional | Researcher | HR & Health

Management Expert | Girl-Child Advocate

Azuïke Chioma Jennifer is a dynamic researcher and marketing professional with years of experience, blending expertise in program management, capacity building, and Monitoring & Evaluation (M&E). She holds a Master's degree in Industrial Relations and Human Resources (with Distinction) from the University of Port Harcourt and is currently pursuing a PhD in Human Resources, further solidifying her academic prowess.

Her educational journey also includes a Bachelor's degree in Sociology/Anthropology (Second Class Lower) and an ongoing Master's in Health Management at ESUT Business School, Enugu—a testament to her multidisciplinary approach to leadership and development.

Professionally, Chioma contributed her strategic skills at American International Insurance Company (AIICO) in Port Harcourt. Beyond her corporate role, she is a passionate advocate for girl-child empowerment, driving change through her foundation, Omafam Care Foundation, which supports vulnerable young girls.

Guided by a mission to serve humanity, Chioma aspires to leave a legacy of impactful leadership and social transformation.
