ABOUT ME

I am a creative and versatile content writer, blogger, and video editor with a background in Law and a strong passion for storytelling and digital content. I have experience writing for online platforms and have published fiction on Goodnovel, Dreame, and Wattpad, as well as worked as a blog writer for BBcreators.

I am skilled in creating engaging written content, developing ideas, researching topics, and adapting my writing to different audiences and platforms. I also have an interest and growing experience in video editing, visual content, and creative production. I'm also a model and a learned fashion designer I attended for three months. I also attended a catering school for six months and was awarded a certificate.

I am a dedicated, adaptable, and detail-oriented professional who enjoys learning new skills and bringing creative ideas to life. I am open to remote and flexible opportunities where I can contribute my writing, communication, creative, and digital skills while continuing to grow professionally.

WORK EXPERIENCE

BBcreators

Entry level | Social Media Manager

Jos, Nigeria

2024-08-01 | 2025-11-01

As a Social Media Manager and Blog Writer at BBcreators, I was responsible for creating, writing, editing, and publishing engaging blog content while managing social media content and maintaining the brand's online presence. I researched relevant and trending topics, developed content ideas, wrote articles and social media captions, scheduled and organized posts, monitored audience engagement, and ensured that content remained consistent with the brand's voice and target audience. I also contributed creative ideas to improve audience reach, engagement, and overall digital visibility.
